

17-29

7 March 1951

Chief, Administrative Staff, OSO

Chief, Communications Division

Membership on Interdepartmental Committees

REF:

OS [REDACTED] dated 1 March 1951

25X1A

1. As requested in the referenced notice, listed below are the names of all interdepartmental committees on which members of the Communications Division are members or alternates:

Signal Corps Technical Committee

This committee governs all research and development activities involving a wide variety of communications equipment used by the Signal Corps. This committee was organized about 1947 at the time CIA was known as SSU. Documents authorizing OSO (Commo) membership on this committee are not available in the Communications Division files. CIA is represented on this committee by:

25X1A

[REDACTED] - Member
[REDACTED] - Alternate

Interdepartment Radio Advisory Committee

The IRAC is the governing body responsible for allocation of radio frequencies being used by all government agencies. CIA is represented on this committee by:

25X1A

[REDACTED] - Member
[REDACTED] - Alternate

A letter from IRAC to The Director, CIA, dated 7 December 1950 advised that CIA had been made a member of IRAC, and a reply dated 20 December 1950, signed by Mr. McConnell, named the above individuals as member and alternate.

25X1A
[REDACTED]